

The Brick Farmhouse School

Disciplinary Policy

The Education Director and Board of Education is responsible for overseeing the disciplinary process at The Brick Farmhouse School. Our Board of Education will have final say in the dismissal of students based on our disciplinary policy.

The Brick Farmhouse School will have a zero-tolerance policy for all serious violations that threaten the safety of students. Any serious violation will result in immediate expulsion from The Brick Farmhouse School, and tuition will be forfeited. Serious violations include but are not limited to; fighting, violence of any kind, drugs, tobacco (including vaping), alcohol, weapons, inappropriate use of technology/social media.

The Brick Farmhouse School will dismiss a student who has 4 or more minor behavior infractions in a single school year. The code of conduct and behavior policy listed in the handbook will be used as the basis for minor behavior infractions.
